- 1 panel have any additional questions? And thank you
- 2 again.
- 3 MR. MCFARLAND: We may very well. I will
- 4 give Mr. Baumann an opportunity to make any opening
- 5 remarks.
- 6 MR. BAUMANN: Thank you. My name is Joe
- 7 Baumann. I've been a correctional officer for 21
- 8 years. I have been a union activist for the last
- 9 12. I am also a recording secretary for Corrections
- 10 USA.
- 11 Mr. York hit it pretty well on head:
- 12 overcrowding; lack of staff; lack of consistent
- 13 policy, both written and implementation; lack of
- 14 leadership. We have had incident upon incident with
- 15 employees being sent out to do their jobs without
- 16 proper safety equipment, and that trickles down to
- 17 the interaction between the staff. You can go to
- 18 the institution where you have 250 inmates triple
- 19 bunked, two officers on the floor. It is impossible

- 20 for the officers to maintain any kind of level of
- 21 proper -- or proper level of safety.
- 22 Training and preemployment screening is a real
- 23 integral part of it. One of the problems we have as
- 24 a department is the sheer volume of inmates. My
- 25 institution, rehabilitation center, we are 250

- 1 percent of capacity for 20 years, without seeing no
- 2 end in site.
- MR. MCFARLAND: Which institution?
- 4 MR. BAUMANN: The rehabilitation center
- 5 down to Norco.
- 6 MR. MCFARLAND: Norco.
- 7 MR. BAUMANN: Yes, sir.
- 8 We've been running 240 percent capacity for 20
- 9 years that I know of. All of a sudden it becomes a
- 10 big emergency in the last six months. Whatever, we
- 11 can have the shortage of bodies to fill positions.
- 12 Management oftentimes answers that with cutting
- 13 positions. So we have fewer and fewer officers
- 14 doing more and more with fewer and fewer people.
- 15 And the federal court mandates mental health care
- 16 delivery and physical health care access to --
- 17 access for developmentally disabled and physically
- 18 disabled. And we are doing those trainings to meet
- 19 those mandates with fewer and fewer people.

- 20 And it is a real challenge for the
- 21 rank-and-file employees. To be real frank, we don't
- 22 get leadership from Sacramento. We don't get good
- 23 direction or it gets watered down by the time it
- 24 gets to our level. There is no access from our
- 25 perspective to the upper-end of the Department, to

- 1 tell the upper-end of the Department what is going
- 2 on.
- 3 Thank you.
- 4 MR. MCFARLAND: What do you, and this is
- 5 addressed to either. What do you recommend as a
- 6 best practice for COs to prevent prisoner sexual
- 7 assault?
- 8 MR. YORK: I believe education is number
- 9 one, prior to, before the person comes into the
- 10 prison. For the workforce on the street or
- 11 workforce in the institution, education is number
- 12 one.
- 13 So the education process that we implemented
- 14 recently on the rape prevention is going to take
- 15 effect in the future. It was just implemented and
- 16 it is a good implementation. I am all for that.
- 17 Awareness, professionalism, that's all accountable
- 18 to. And I work at CSP-SAC, and I can only speak for
- 19 CSP-SAC. We have a unique situation over there. We
